

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

BEST PRACTICES

Objective of the practice

1. To develop the students and motivate them to prepare and pass in competitive examinations
2. To motivate students to understand the importance of competitive examinations and help them in learning time management and planning skills
3. To develop strategic thinking and work intelligently
4. To bring awareness and guide the students for various competitive examinations

CONTEXT

The department of History was established in the year 1966. The Department believes that were doing graduation the students abilities to pass in competitive examinations should be enhanced. The need of the hour is to impart and prepare in advance while in graduation to clear a competitive examinations for the upcoming future.

PRACTICE

1. Learn and practice on line tests for different competitive examinations
2. To prepare and procure free study material, with answers and explanations.
3. To develop a preparation strategy.
4. To sort out a study plan
5. To get familiar with exam pattern
6. To devote time for self-study.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS

- 1 .A student K.Mahesh the year 2020 got selected in Premier institute like IIM Ranchi
2. Yashwanth and Nithin wrote the preliminary exam of UPSC in the year 2022
3. P.Ravi and A. Raju cleared the National universities common entrance test