

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
BEST PRACTICE
BRIDGE COURSE

Objective of the Practice:

- To develop Understanding of society amongst the Non Arts students.
- To overcome any barrier between subjects learned at the intermediate level And subjects they would concentrate in degree classes.
- This course provides a better transition phase to prepare themselves before the onset of course for first semester
- To help students to understand the theoretical concepts in social science.

The Context

The Department of Political Science is established in the year 1966. It has been felt that the teaching-learning can be enhanced by giving this bridge course.

Bridge course can be considered as supplementary knowledge that can be provided to students to impart basic knowledge in them about the advanced subjects that will be taught to them in the upcoming future.

Practice

- The students used to participate in Discussions and Debates on social issues.
- The students have participated in quiz, Essay writing and elocution competitions on the Special occasions.
- It helped the students in acquiring the social values.
- The field visits to Assembly sessions have helped the students to get the practical knowledge of law making.
- Students have a better understanding of the working of various political institutions including decentralized institutions state legislatures and parliament and relate this functioning to the greater cause of nation building as a responsible citizen.

Evidence of Success

- The doubts they got regarding the philosophy while teaching to the students are clarified thoroughly.
- It provided the students to understand the ideologies successfully.
- The students gained the Knowledge about political philosophy and presented it in student seminar.
- Students will exhibit acquaintance of basic terms, concepts and principles of Political Science

Problems encountered and resources required:

Giving them Experiential learning and taking them to field will be a problem because of not having proper resources.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
BEST PRACTICE
PG ENTRANCE GUIDENCE

Objective of the Practice:

- To Develop Understanding Advanced topics in Political Science
- This Guidance Provides a better transition phase to prepare them before Attending PG Entrance Test.
- To Guide the students to join in central and state universities.

The Context

The Department of Political Science is established in the year 1966. It has been felt that the teaching-learning can be enhanced by giving this Guidance.

PG ENTRANCE GUIDENCE can be considered as supplementary knowledge that can be provided to students to impart Advanced knowledge in them about the advanced subjects that will be taught to them in the upcoming future.

Practice

- Students will solve the previous papers of various universities
- Students will prepare study material by reading different reference books in departmental library.
- Important Topics will be explained to the students.

Evidence of Success

- Every Year students will be joining Post Graduation in Political Science in different state and central universities

Problems encountered and resources required:

- More Reference books are needed to Read.